Dear [Manager, Office of the Dean],

I wish to self-nominate for the title of chair professor. -- I would be grateful if you could confirm receipt of this email.

The write-up for my earlier self-nomination, of 2021, is at <https://carstenholz.people.ust.hk/Initiative/2021-4-12-CarstenHolz-Statement-Self-Nomination-ChairProfessorship.pdf> .

Given that I didn't receive the chair professor title in the mid/late 2010s—incomprehensible to me (<https://carstenholz.people.ust.hk/Initiative/2018-10-11-ResearchTeaching.pdf>)—and have been consistently ignored in the more recent rounds when I self-nominated, I am not updating my write-up (it would seem a waste of time).

My CV is at <https://carstenholz.people.ust.hk/CV/CarstenHolz-CV.pdf>

In a sign of how far the school's chair professor nomination committee is behind the curve,
“The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology <media@ust.hk>” in a 17 June 2021 email “News Clippings,” shared internally with HKUST's elite cadres, wrote “SOSC Chair Prof. Carsten Holz commented in an article on...” [emphasis added] :)

Best,
Carsten
